Former town councillor dies from stab wound

By Anders Larsson
and Paul Crompton

A PROMINENT Honiton business figure and former town councillor has died following a suspected stabbing.

Businessman Michael Bithrey died from the stab wound he sustained while in Bridgwater, Somerset, a post mortem has revealed.

The 72-year-old grandfather died shortly after being airlifted to Musgrove Park Hospital in Taunton, following the 'altercation' at around 11am on Thursday, June 21st.

An 83-year-old man has been arrested on suspicion of his murder.

Mr Bithrey was married with four children. He owned Bithrey Holdings, based in Bithrey House, King Street, Honiton.

A spokesperson for Avon and Somerset Police said:

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

OTTERY ST MARY: Primary School pupil Erin Clarke, 10, has landed a major role in the BBC children's television series, "Dick and Dom Hooplal" as a mischievous clown

HONITON: Former Honiton resident, Alan Toothill, a writer now based in Italy, has pledged to donate all the UK income from his crime books to the proposed Beehive community centre.

AXMINSTER: Mike and Lucy Stead took part in the Channel 5 TV programme, "The Restaurant Inspector", screened last week, and now intend to return to the restaurant with a group of friends.

SIDMOUTH: Sidmouth Golf Club assistant pro Kevin Harper came second in the Powerade PGA assistants' championship at East Sussex National golf course, having led for two days.

Quotes of the week...

“THE committee were heavy hearted, as they considered all the possibilities, but felt, due to the deluge of rainfall from the previous night, and the excessive rainfall that morning, which was preventing the exhibitors entering the showground and the tractors which had already been deployed to start towing vehicles on and off the show ground, this was the only sensible decision”

Axe Vale Festival chairman Claire Morgan on the decision to cancel one of Devon's most popular two-day shows after a deluge of rain on Thursday

“IT IS the connecting point between the sea and the town centre and is ripe for enhancement to become a major attraction for the town”

Councillor Heather Sanham on plans to regenerate Seaton seafront

“WE would like to reassure everyone we have listened, consulted and taken on board the numerous comments. Our view is a united one”

Sidmouth's seven district councillors promising to speak with one voice on four hot topics in the town

Tigers to rebuild youth team structure

AXMINSTER Town Football Club are in the process of rebuilding their youth section.

The Tigers had just one established youth side last season but have plans in place to increase this to four.

Club chairman Ray Self, alongside youth development officer Micky Walsh, will be running an under 18s team that will be playing friendly floodlit matches on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Self said: "Micky has contacts within the local football scene that we hope will allow us to play against the academy teams from the likes of Torquay United and Tiverton Town."

AXMINSTER

Rain washes out festival

AXMINSTER'S event calendar suffered a massive blow when two festivals were cancelled because of bad weather.

Axe Vale Festival, one of the biggest and most popular one-day shows in Devon, should have been held last weekend at the showground on the outskirts of town, but organisers decided to cancel the event at a full committee meeting at mid-day on Thursday after a deluge of rain earlier in the week.

The festival, launched in 1994, has raised a total of nearly £300,000 for the Flamingo Pool and other worthy causes over the years, and had never been cancelled before.

Festival chairman Claire Morgan, new to the job this year, said: "The committee decided by a large majority and with great sadness, that the 18th Axe Vale Festival was to be cancelled.

"The committee were heavy hearted, as they considered all the possibilities, but felt, due to the deluge of rainfall from the previous night, and the excessive rainfall that morning, which was preventing the exhibitors entering the showground and the tractors which had already been deployed to start towing vehicles on and off the show ground, this was the only sensible decision.

COLYTON

Record profit

COLYTON TRACTOR RUN proved a financial success, with a record total of more than £3,300 raised for worthy causes.

Members of the organising committee described contributions as "tremendous", with the street collection alone bringing in some £500 more than last year.

The event was held on Bank Holiday Monday, June 4th, and featured the maximum amount of entries, 120, many decorated in a patriotic theme to mark the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

Organising committee member Ann Veit said: "It was our best year ever, with so many wow factors.

"Despite the gloomy economic climate the street collection was tremendous, going from £842 last year to a whopping £1,363 this year.

"The best news of all is that £3,000 will be shared between the two main beneficiaries, Clc Sargent and The Children's Hospice South West."

From the editor's chair Happy days here again

IS SUMMER here at last? The question asked in this column last week clearly tempted fate and the inevitable happened when you try to predict the British weather: it teemed down and resulted in the cancellation for the first time of the Axe Vale Festival.

I should have known better and offer a profound apology in my Editor at Large column on page 18.

Our pages would have been filled of shots of festivalgoers enjoying one of Devon's most popular show so not quite so many smiling faces in this week's edition.

Pulman's View prides itself on being a real community paper, recording the day-to-day happenings of the various towns and villages across East Devon.

Much of what we report doesn't see the light of day elsewhere but in an age when all the bad news in the world - and there's enough of that - can be beamed into your front room or onto your laptop, iPad or iPhone within 20 seconds of some war or disaster breaking out, we believe it is important that we never lose sight of what is happening at the end of your road.

As I tell my young reporters, it doesn't get more parish pump than reporting in Pulman's Country.

Some of them, I am delighted to say, move on to more exciting careers, as indeed I did for a few years. But they never forget where they stood on the first rung of their journalistic ladder.

Last week I managed to get together with two reporters who worked for me in the 1970s and who went on to achieve great things. Geoff Baker, after flirting with Fleet Street, became Paul McCartney's PR for 15 years, and Mark Hollands became a top media figure in Australia.

With Mark returning to Sidmouth to look up family and friends, we got together over dinner to chew the fat about the old times.

Happy days.

Philip Evans

HONITON

Ex-councillor dies from stab wound

A PROMINENT Honiton business figure and former town councillor has died following a suspected stabbing.

Businessman Michael Bithrey died from the stab wound he sustained while in Bridgwater, Somerset, a post mortem has revealed.

The 72-year-old grandfather died shortly after being airlifted to Musgrove Park Hospital in Taunton, following the 'altercation' at around 11am on Thursday, June 21st.

An 83-year-old man has been arrested on suspicion of his murder.

Mr Bithrey was married with four children. He owned Bithrey Holdings, based in Bithrey House, King Street, Honiton.

A spokesperson for Avon and Somerset Police said: "We can confirm the identity of the man who was stabbed in an incident in Bridgwater last week as 72-year-old Michael Bithrey.

"A man, aged 83, arrested on suspicion of murder, remains under police supervision."

In a previous statement issued shortly after the incident, the spokesperson said: "Police have confirmed the death of a man following an incident in Bridgwater is being treated as murder.

"A man in his 70s died following an altercation with another man on Thursday morning in the Chilton Street area of the town at about 10.50am.

"The injured man was taken by air ambulance to Taunton's Musgrove Park Hospital but he died later.

SIDMOUTH

Councillors to speak as one...

THE SEVEN district councillors serving Sidmouth wards have joined forces to promote a united strategy on four hot topics in the town.

Councillors Chris Wale, Christine Drew, Stuart Hughes, Graham Troman, Sheila Kerridge, Peter Sullivan and Frances Newth say they decided to get together in response to discussions, comments and statements regarding the Drill Hall, Knowle, employment land and housing provision.

A statement issued on Wednesday, June 20th explained: "Firstly, we would like to reassure everyone we have listened, consulted and taken on board the numerous comments since calling the East Devon District Council meeting at Stowford Community Centre, the annual town council assembly and the special extraordinary town council meeting held at EDDC recently.

"Our view is a united one and we have separated each of the following responses for clarity."

One burning issue is EDDC's proposed move from Sidmouth to Honiton.

The seven Conservative councillors said: "If EDDC decides to relocate, we would seek to secure a continued EDDC presence within our town such as a one-stop shop and additional services, which could be utilised for the benefit of residents. This would be sought as part of the bargaining process."

OTTERY ST MARY

AN OTTERY St Mary girl has landed a major role in a BBC children's television series.

Ottery St Mary Primary School pupil, Erin Clarke is to take on the role of a mischievous clown in a series named Dick and Dom Hoopla, led by the famous children's duo for CBBC.

Always interested in acting, 10-year-old Erin has been part of local acting group - Stagecoach Theatre Arts School in Honiton - since she was five years old and has always enjoyed singing, dancing and acting.

Supported by her parents, younger brother Freddie and younger sister Lyla, Erin has been working hard for a number of years to achieve her dream.

MP presents tourism rose award to gallery

■ CONGRATULATIONS: MP Neil Parsh presents the Thelma Hubert Gallery's business development manager, Angela Wood with the Visit Britain Rose Mark award

THE Thelma Hulbert Gallery in Honiton has been awarded the Visit Britain (English Tourist Board) Rose Mark.

MP for Honiton and Tiverton, Neil Parsh, presented the award to the gallery's business development manager, Andrea Wood, in the grounds of Elmfield House watched by a number of community members and supporters.

The Visit Britain Rose Mark makes the gallery the only quality assured visitor attraction in Honiton and for many miles around.

Introducing the award, Ian Scott, from Visit Britain said the gallery had achieved one of the highest possible scores in the anonymous visitor testing which led to the accreditation.

Presenting the award, Mr Parsh said: "It is a great pleasure to present the English Tourist Board's 'rose' to such an excellent gallery. "I am very impressed with the quality of the exhibitions, it is a great asset to Honiton."

Ms Wood thanked all the staff and especially the unpaid volunteer stewards for keeping up the gallery's reputation and expressed a hope that the prestigious award would also benefit the economy of the town by attracting increasing numbers of visitors in the future.

She said: "I am delighted on behalf of all the volunteers and staff to accept this fantastic and prestigious award which will put Honiton and the Thelma Hubert on the map nationally as an art attraction."

Former town councillor dies from stab wound

"We can confirm the identity of the man who was stabbed in an incident in Bridgwater last week as 72-year-old Michael Bithrey.

"A man, aged 83, arrested on suspicion of murder, remains under police supervision."

In a previous statement issued shortly after the incident, the spokesperson said: "Police have confirmed the death of a man following an incident in Bridgwater is being treated as murder.

"A man in his 70s died following an altercation with another man on Thursday morning in the Chilton Street area of the town at about 10.50am.

"The injured man was taken by air ambulance to Taunton's Musgrove Park Hospital but he died later. A post mortem has confirmed the cause of death was a stab wound."

A person answering the phone at Bithrey Holdings Ltd on Monday, June 25th said the company would not comment or make a statement.

Town councillor Vivienne Ash said she had known Mr Bithrey through various business dealings.

She said: "I knew him from business dealings years ago and obviously he was a prominent figure in the town. It very sad news.

"You don't expect that sort of thing to happen to anybody you know. I don't know the full details, I just heard it was a stabbing, it is just so unexpected."

Police would like to hear from anyone who was in the area at the time of the incident or who may have information to help their enquiries.

Anyone with information should contact Taunton CID on 101.

Warning over cash machine tampering

HONITON CID has issued a 'cashpoint beware alert' for the whole of east and mid-Devon.

As revealed in Pulman's View last week, thousands of pounds were taken from unsuspecting card holders when a cashpoint in Axminster was tampered with.

Banks confirmed the incident but police said at the time that they had not received a complaint.

It has since emerged that there have been more recent incidents, particularly in Honiton and Sidmouth as well as Axminster

Only a few days after the Axminster incident, police issued an alert saying: "Detectives in Honiton are urging residents in east and mid-Devon to be vigilant around cash machines after an increase in bank card scams known as skimming.

"Devices are placed over cash machines to record bank details which can then be fraudulently used.

"They look very professional and can be difficult to detect.

"The device records the PIN as it is entered and the cash machine either states it has dispensed the cash or there is a fault.

"No money is dispensed. When the user goes into the bank or other premises to raise the issue someone waiting nearby retrieves the device and cash.

"These incidents occur mostly during the daytime at cash points in Sidmouth, Honiton, Axminster and Tiverton.

"Common targets are large supermarkets such as Tesco and Waitrose. However some smaller banks have also been affected.

The suspects are believed to be part of organised groups and are described as white foreign nationals.

Police are asking anyone who sees anything suspicious near a cash point to report it to police on 101, quoting the most recent crime number KH/12/401.

TV stars for one night only: show helps restaurants

REFERRING to a customer as "fatty at table 11" should be a recipe for disaster for any restaurateur – especially if the customer finds out.

That is precisely what happened when an Axminster couple visited a restaurant in Brent Knoll for Channel 5's The Restaurant Inspector.

In what could have been a Fawlty Towers-inspired episode, Mike and Lucy Stead visited Acorns, about 30 miles south of Bristol, in January this year. The episode aired on Monday, June 18th and it didn't start well.

The dining room was cold, the food was poor, the staff couldn't help – so the couple left prematurely.

When the man in charge – a cocksure 19-year-old named Ollie Milenkovic, who hopes to be a millionaire at 25 – cleared their table, he said: "What a bunch of tossers."

When restaurant inspector Fernando Peire tells the 19-year-old that there had been two mystery diners the night before, the reply was: "Fatty at table 11?", referring to Mike.

Mr Peire appeared mildly shocked and said: "I've been taken aback by his attitude."

Surprisingly, Mike and Lucy have turned into repeat customers at the restaurant and hope to bring a coach-load of friends in the near future. Mike and Lucy both stress that they were not told by producers to be difficult, although they came across as precisely that.

They both said: "If we had liked it, we would have

By Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

said so. There was no agenda to make the place look bad."

Lucy explained: "They (the producers) made it out as we turned all the food away, but we didn't."

Mike, who used to be a chef, added: "The starter was lovely and the waitress was superb."

As part of the episode, Acorns underwent a makeover and became Ollie's Cafe. To make a long story short, Mike and Lucy were invited to the re-launch and were extremely pleased with the food and service.

Ollie apologised to the couple, and there are no hard feelings. Lucy explained: "He knew he had called us names and he called to apologise about three weeks before the show."

But she was also very understanding, and added: "We slated his place. Everybody, surely, would have been a bit hacked off."

Mike added: "I take my hat off to him. It takes a lot of balls to take over a restaurant at 19."

They hope to fill a coach with friends and visit the restaurant soon as part of a charity fundraiser. The plan is for everyone in the party to wear a t-shirt saying "I'm with fatty at table 11".

The episode can be watched at www.channel5.com/shows/the-restaurant-inspector/episodes/acorns.

Teacher signs book deal

AXE Valley Community College English teacher Emma Carroll is thrilled to bits after signing a two-book deal with Faber and Faber to publish her debut novel for young people, Frost Hollow Hall.

The novel came about as part of her MA in Writing For Young People at Bath Spa University, which she did as a part-time student and completed last autumn.

She was also influenced by teaching creative writing to AS English Literature students, and by her passion for all things Victorian. After being awarded the runner up prize for the MA course's Most Promising Writer, she was signed by United Agents, who then sold the UK rights to Frost Hollow Hall to Faber and Faber.

The novel is aimed at the 9-12 age range and is a ghost story set in Victorian times. It is told from the viewpoint of 14-year-old Tilly, whose life changes dramatically when she has a near death experience on a frozen lake.

She is saved by the undead spirit of a boy, who in return, now needs her to solve the mystery of his own death in the same lake ten years earlier.

Frost Hollow Hall is due to be published in October 2013. In the meantime, Mrs Carroll is gathering ideas for her second book.

College headteacher Martin Smith said: "Congratulations to Mrs Carroll – we are very proud of this superb achievement. We are extremely fortunate to have such talented teachers at our college."

THE Rotary Club of Axminster would welcome nominations for its two annual community awards – The Leslie Knight Community Award and The Bill Knapman Community Award.

The Les Knight Community Award is presented to someone whose efforts have benefited the local community over the last year whilst the Bill Knapman Community Award is presented to someone whose efforts have benefited children and younger people over the past year.

Last year, the former was won by tourist information centre manager Sarah Crook for her "tireless efforts" promoting Axminster whilst the latter was claimed by former Axe Valley Community College student Christina Squire.

Among other things, Christina was one of the college's Gold Young Ambassadors which saw her engage in various sport-related activities like attending conferences and motivating fellow students.

A spokesperson for The Rotary Club of Axminster said: "If you would like to nominate a person or persons for one or both awards on the basis of the contribution they have made in the local community, please write with a brief description of the reason for your nomination."

Nominations must be received by Saturday, July 7th and should be sent to: Simon Dunn, Westover, Lear Lane, Axminster, Devon EX13 5JD.

LOCAL children are set for a week of fun and games with the St Paul's holiday club.

Based on Barnabas holiday club material the "Champions" week will be full of games, crafts, drama, music, and Bible stories as children learn about the life of the Ultimate Champion — Jesus.

Leader of the holiday club and St Paul's Children's Worker, Rose Millard, is excited about the event. She said: "Everyone is excited about sport at the moment; Euro 2012, Wimbledon and, of course, the Olympics."

The holiday club runs from July 30th to August 3rd at the Mackarness Hall and is open to all people aged 5-11.

ESCOT will be officially opening its summer season of falconry displays with a spectacular open evening on Thursday, July 5th.

Experienced falconer Jonathan Marshall will be hosting the special event, which will see British singer Elkie Brooks kick-starting proceedings at 7pm. Together with a horseback falconry display, jousting and entertainment from opera singer David Marshall, there will be a hog roast and bar available.

Tickets to this event are available and can be bought, priced at £5, from Escot by calling 01404 822188.

OFFWELL Primary School will be holding its Great British Summer Fayre this Friday (June 29th).

The fete will begin at 1.30pm until on the school field (in Offwell Village Hall if wet) and everyone is welcome to attend, preferably dressed in red, white and blue.

Alan pledges fee to centre

■ SUPPORTER: Mr Tootill supports the community centre project

A WRITER has pledged to donate all the UK income from sales of his books until the end of September to The Friends of the Beehive.

The controversial community centre project will go ahead and fundraising efforts are under way.

Alan Tootill is well-known in Honiton, but is now based in Puglia, Italy.

His books in the Martin Cole series are based in the fictional east Devon town of Roselake.

Alan denies that Roselake is based on any particular town, but thinks readers will find the books have a definite flavour of the area. The novels are a blend of crime fiction and humour.

Alan said: "Now that it is finally confirmed that the Beehive project is going ahead I want to make my contribution, even if from long distance."

"The project has been dear to my heart for many years."

Greyhound gathering day to return

THE South West Greyhound Gathering will return for another year this August, following its success last year.

Supported by James Wellbeloved, greyhound owners and their pets are invited to go along to the event to support the awareness of greyhound, whippet and lurcher ownership and the Retired Greyhound Trust.

Included in the event will be a special family fun dog show, a sponsored greyhound walk, a selection of trade stands and barbecue and a number of fun events for all the family.

The gathering will take place on Saturday, August 18th, at Milestone, Upton, near Honiton, EX149QT.

To find out more information, get involved, take part in the sponsored walk or host a trade stand at the event, visit: www.wix.com/rgthillview/swgg.

The Retired Greyhound Trust is a national registered charity with over 70 branches nationwide, dedicated to finding loving homes for retired greyhounds.

Recycling boost for Honiton

■ WASTE NOT, WANT NOT: Volunteers in Honiton were happy with the success of their recycling event

THE SECOND Honiton Waste Not Want Not event was deemed a great success when a total of 500 kilograms of items were saved from landfill.

Aiming to recycle unused items in the home, the event attracted a huge number of people through the doors of the Mackarness Hall. People were invited to donate items to the event which were then free to be taken to a good home by anyone attending.

One Waste Not Want Not volunteer, took up the recycling theme by bringing along dozens of plants and saplings from seeds given away at the recent Seedy Saturday event arranged by Transition Town Honiton.

Items donated included tools and gardening furniture, toys, books, plants, homeware and furniture with over 600 kilograms donated by the public and over 500 kilograms taken away. The left over items were then recycled or donated to charity shops.

Organiser, Karen Berger was pleased with the success and said: "I have worked very hard over the last few weeks to spread the word about this event, and these results just go to show how much can be re-used and recycled within the community"

"I would like to thank all those who did manage to come along on the day, and for the huge number of donations they brought with them.

The quality of the goods was very high, and I know that many of our visitors were absolutely delighted with the items they picked up.

"My special thanks must go to my wonderful volunteers; for all the unpacking and sorting, displaying of the goods, working in the kitchen, and tidying the whole hall afterwards."

Organisers of the event are now looking to encourage people to think ahead to the next events on September 22nd and November 3rd.

A set of white bathroom scales and a blue calculator were taken away from the event by accident and organisers would be grateful for their return.

Colour therapy to boost confidence

A HONITON woman has launched her own business as a holistic colour and style consultant.

Angela Garner aims to help women find their true colours in shades that suit their skin tone, shape and personality, thus boosting their confidence.

With training from the Institute and International School of Colour Therapy and a diploma in holistic colour and style, Angela explained: "The reason I love to do this is that it helps women feel confident when perhaps they don't feel their best or feel that they need to rebuild themselves back up from a traumatic time or change in their lives.

"There is nothing out of the ordinary about what I do in the sense that I merely look at the energy and effect of colour on an individual. However once that person understands their colours, they feel much more confident as a result and with the right energy can carry themselves in a much more positive way.

"Colours can make a person feel confident, calm, energised, uplifted, sexy or even give you a little bit of edge so it is great to know what to wear, how to wear it and how your personality can be reflected in your style."

The colour coaching usually takes about an hour for

■ CONFIDENCE BOOST: Angela Garner with her colour samples

Angela to find out about style, personality and colour energy and then to assess what colours best suit each individual. Clients can then come away with a set of swatches reflecting the colours chosen for them, which can be used as inspiration whilst shopping for clothes and accessories.

Angela is looking to begin workshops in Sidmouth and the surrounding area to boost awareness of her work. She is open to workshops and also her 'Stylish Coffee Mornings' where groups can get together to find out about their style personalities whilst raising money for a cause of their choice.

If you think Silver Rain Colour Coaching may be for you, call Angela on 01404 41448 or email silverrain@btinternet.com to find out more and to discuss your colours further.

Firefighters called out to car

FIREFIGHTERS dealt with a car leaking fuel after an accident outside Stedcombe Lodge in Axmouth on Thursday, June 21st.

The accident involved one car and firefighters from Seaton were called to the scene at about 7:50pm.

A spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "No persons were trapped but the vehicle was leaking fluids onto the carriageway and needed to be made safe."

Summer fayre next month

Seaton ready for Independents' Day

By Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedi.co.uk

SEATON is among many towns flying the flag for local retailers and supporting diversity on the high street.

Across the country on July 4th, the public will be encouraged to buy at least one item from their local, independent shop to celebrate Independents' Day 2012.

The national campaign, organised by Skillsmart Retail and the National Skills Academy for Retail, champions the local retailers who make the UK's villages, towns and cities so special.

To raise awareness of the campaign, Seaton and District Chamber of Commerce are launching The Seaton Business Awards and also encouraging people to support their independent shops.

There will be two main awards - Best Independent Retail Business and Best Independent Non-Retail Business. The public will be able to vote and say who their favourite independent business is and why.

Shoppers will be encouraged to take part in the competition and there will be a prize draw for those who do.

The awards will be celebrated and the results announced at an event in August.

If businesses or shoppers would like to find out more they can contact Heidi Hallam, Business Development Officer - heidi@apositive-difference.co.uk

Chairman of the Chamber, Marcus Hartnell, said: "We have some great independent shops in Seaton and we want to encourage more people to use them. If everyone bought at least one item from one of our independent shops on July 4th this would be a big help.

"If we can then encourage our local community and visitors to carry on buying locally on a more regular basis then we could have a more vibrant town."

With over 160,000 independent retailers making up 92 per cent of all retail businesses in the UK, their importance to local economies as well as their contribution to a location's identity and community is unrivalled.

To stay up to date with all the activities, you can follow the campaign on Twitter @Retail_IndieDay, facebook.com/independentsday or on the news section of www.retailindieday.com

FROSH handover to Seaton's Voice

SEATON'S Voice were given a financial boost last week when the disbanded Friends of Seaton Town/Community Hall (FROSH) handed over its remaining funds. FROSH were set up in 2007 following a public meeting about the continuing difficulties of running the town hall. However, after Seaton's Voice was set up, it was decided that FROSH would take a back seat and the group was eventually disbanded. Members handed over their remaining funds of £214.09 to members of Seaton's Voice at the town hall on Wednesday. Seaton's Voice members said it was a "lovely gesture" and that it was "the past coming through to the present and working toward the future"

THE chartered accountants at Thomas Westcott's Seaton office have announced that local man Paul Dike won the branch's jubilee draw. Mr Dike, who is a teacher at Seaton Primary School, came back from his holiday in Austria to the news that he had won a hamper. He said: "It was a lovely surprise and my wife and I will enjoy it very much."

Beer Scouts get into the Olympic spirit

BEER Scouts got into the Olympic spirit when the 1948 Olympic Sailing Torch arrived at Beer Sailing Club.

The replica of the 1948 torch is on a journey from Torquay to Weymouth and Portland Sailing Academy (WPNSA), this year's Olympic sailing venue, and made one of its many stops in Beer last week.

The Beer Scouts got more than they bargained for when, to their surprise, a 2012 Olympic torch also appeared in the village, brought along by Honiton Scout leader and torch bearer, Ryan Braunton Turner who ran with it in Minehead.

The Scouts group were able to pass around the torches and one scout, Maryka, was wowed when she had the opportunity to hold two torches together.

Organiser, RYA South West regional Development officer Tony Wood, said: "It was great to see the scouts so excited about seeing two of the Olympic torches together."

■ EVERYONE had a great time learning about the Olympic torches from local torchbearer Ryan Braunton Turner and those linked with the 1948 Olympic torch journey to the WPNSA, whilst, right, the Scouts were wowed when they saw not one but two Olympic torches.

Pat's 'thank you' to Scouts

THE 1st Beer Scouts were thanked in a special coffee morning organised by former Poppy Appeal organiser, Pat Bewick, raising £251.

After retiring from her long serving role as the poppy organiser for Beer's Royal British Legion Women's Section, Pat (pictured above, front row, end right) felt the need to thank the Scouts for their support during remembrance events.

She told Pulman's View: "The Beer Scouts are really good kids and this is my way of thanking them for their support during my role as poppy organiser and to give something back to them."

Beer Scout Leader, Fiona Gage, added: "I am so grateful to Pat for her support and help with fundraising for our scout group."

"The money will go towards our mini bus for the group which will enable us to do a lot more with the local young people with extra trips and activities."

Schools stage their own torch relay

PRIMARY school pupils have promoted the Olympics by carrying torches between Axe Valley towns and villages.

A total of two torches - one made by students at Axe Valley Community College and another one made by students at Colyton Grammar School - have been on week-long tours of local schools.

The Axminster torch was taken by a college team to Chardstock Primary School on Monday, June 18th and paraded through the village.

The torch was then taken to Uplyme by car before it made its way back to Axminster.

A team of pupils from Axminster Primary School and St Mary's RC Primary School gathered at Sector Lane on Wednesday, June 20th and walked the torch to Hawkchurch Primary School.

They left Axminster in style as they were given a police escort. The torch relays have been organised by Axe Valley and Colyton Learning Community.

Sports co-ordinator Hannah Manfield said: "Many children will have a chance to celebrate the Olympics and have photos with the torch at each primary school before it is delivered in a multitude of exciting ways to the next school."

"Colyton Grammar School ran from Colyton to their first primary school."

"The torch has been designed and made by Year 11 design and technology students, with assistance from Peco in Beer."

"Three Colyton students and two teachers have already spent time at Peco, learning how to engrave the torch handle with the names of the schools using a special laser cutting machine."

During the week the torch travelled from Beer Primary to Seaton, Musbury, Kilmington, Shute and Colyton Primary, returning to Colyton Grammar School on Friday, June 22nd.

Olympic celebrations continue at Colyton Grammar

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedial.co.uk

OLYMPIC celebrations continued at Colyton Grammar School this week, as their own version of the Olympic torch returned having toured around local primary schools.

The torch, designed and created by Year 11 design and technology students, set off on the Axe Valley Learning Community Relay on Monday and was returned by Colyton Primary School students on Friday afternoon.

On its journey it visited children at Beer, Seaton, Musbury, Kilminster and Shute primary schools.

On returning to the grammar school it was joined by the Mayor and Mayoress of Colyford, John and Vicky Mills, and Colyton town crier, Derek Wenn.

To celebrate the torch's return, Colyton Grammar students put on their own Olympic-style opening ceremony for the younger children and guests, including ballet, modern dance, Irish dance, gymnastics and taekwondo.

A replica of the 1948 Olympic sailing torch, currently making its way from Torquay to the sailing venue in Weymouth, was also on display to the children.

The same opening ceremony was performed again on Monday to other Colyton Grammar students, marking the beginning of the school's Olympic Week.

Celebrations will continue today (Tuesday) with the school's sports day and the Olympic Torch Kiss, when sixth form student and Olympic torchbearer Emma McLean, who ran in the official relay in Exeter, will be in her own torch.

News briefs

Collection raises over £2,000

THE Colyton and Colyford branch of Cancer Research UK would like to thank all local residents for their support in the group's house-to-house collection.

The annual collection this year raised £2,221.40.

Branch secretary Jean Love said: "Very many thanks to all who donated to the collection. We must say a very big thank you to all our collectors, we could not manage this event without all your help and time to deliver and collect the envelopes."

All set for annual church fete

THE annual Colyton Church Fete will be held on Saturday, July 7th from 2.30pm.

St Andrew's Parish Church will play host to a variety of traditional stalls, competitions, a raffle and cream teas.

There will also be live music from Bridport-based band One Night Stand and there will be dancing led by the young T&N Dancers of Colyton.

Senior insight into trains

THORNCOMBE Rail Activities Club's speaker in June was Andrew Pennington, a very experienced head of planning at First Great Western.

He runs one of the largest planning departments in the country with a staff of over thirty people.

Their job is to match the resources available with the expectations and wishes of consumers and many others: government, engineering, maintenance, accountants, among many others.

Since the needs of each of these parties do not necessarily always coincide, they have a very complex juggling task to get the best fit for the timetable.

The planners also have to deal with short term disruptions or extra demands such as bad weather, breakdowns, excursions and events.

Andrew also explained that given the structure of the management of the railway system as a whole, the end result of their planning has to be submitted to other parties, such as Network Rail, who "own" the track and lineside equipment.

Their own planning department may demand changes to the submitted plan.

One advantage FGW has is that the parent company also runs buses, so that if the worst happens and a line is closed, they can often whistle up alternative transport quite quickly.

Members were very lucky to get such a senior manager to give a fascinating and detailed look at the behind-the-scenes work that goes on to keep trains running.

The next meeting is in September, when Graham Bean will reveal more about his forays into railway premises in a talk entitled More about Graham's Mis-spent Youth.

This will be on Wednesday, September 19th at 7.30pm in the village hall at Thorncombe.

Newly-formed Humanists hear talk on origin of Earth

THE June meeting of the East Devon Humanist Group took place at Sidbury Parish rooms when David Love, who has a degree in physics and astronomy, gave a talk on the origins of the universe.

This was followed by a lively discussion. David's clear and wide-ranging talk was accompanied by some excellent photographs of stars and of galaxies of which there are more than 150 billion in the observable universe.

He described how astronomers developed the big bang theory of the origins of the universe and why this has now become less of a theory and more of an established fact, the big bang fitting every phenomenon observed so far.

He ended with an account of what we do not yet know, dark matter and dark energy, which together make up 94 per cent of space.

To find more about humanism or about the activities of East Devon Humanists, please contact Ann on 01404 46766.

Illustrated Tin Can Mail topic

TIN Can Mail from Tonga was the very intriguing title of the illustrated talk given by the Revd Terry Harris at the June meeting of the Honiton Afternoon Women's Institute (WI).

The Revd Harris explained that he first developed an interest in Philately at the age of 11 and this has continued all through his life.

His speciality has been postage from Tin Can Island which is the most northerly volcanic island in Tonga.

Because of its rock formation there is no harbour so until recent times the mail could only be received and collected from ships passing by in the Pacific Ocean.

Men went by canoes as far as possible and then swam out to the ships to collect the sealed tin cans as they came overboard.

The ships also took the sealed cans on board containing mail for delivery from the Islanders.

The scheme started in 1929 but there is now an airstrip on the Island which has made life much easier.

The Revd Harris brought a fascinating display of a wide variety of stamped envelopes all marked Tin Can Mail for the members to see at the end of a very interesting afternoon.

The Diamond Jubilee Lunch held at the Tumbling Weir Hotel in Ottery St Mary for the East Devon area of the Devon Federation of Women's Institutes was a great success with over 80 members attending.

After the lunch members were entertained by Margaret Duffy who gave a talk entitled Tiaras and Feathers.

She had a beautiful display of Fascinators which she modelled on many of the members.

It was a really good finale to a very enjoyable occasion.

The Diamond Jubilee celebrations for this WI were held at the home of Jenny Richards on a lovely summer's afternoon where members were able to sit in her garden for a social occasion and enjoy some very nice refreshments.

The next meeting is on July 9th at 2pm in the Methodist Chapel, when a cookery demonstration will be given by Mrs Mary Bolshaw.

Visitors are always welcome to attend.

'Strictly' stars at WI federation meeting

THE June meeting of the Seaton Women's Institute (WI) opened with the usual business matters and followed by a report from Aimee Guard detailing her visit to the national meeting held in London at the Albert Hall.

It was attended by over 5,000 women. There were two great speakers, Julien Fellowes and Dame Magee Aderin Pocock.

The Resolution for More Midwives was voted in favour by 96 per cent. There was also great excitement when four members of Strictly Come Dancing team arrived to give a surprise performance.

Two new members were welcomed to the group along with the return of a past member. The speaker was a retired airline pilot, who gave a talk beginning with how he achieved his pilots licence to becoming a captain.

The speaker next month is a gentleman from the RSPB on Tuesday, July 17th at 2.15pm at Seaton Methodist church hall.

Feniton kids in charity abseil

PUPILS, parents and teachers of Feniton Primary School took part in a sponsored abseil down St Andrew's Church, Feniton, on Saturday, June 16th.

The 50ft decent was in aid of the school, church and the Norman Palmer School in Melanesia, which is twinned with primary school.

The abseil was for children over eight-years-old, but other children had the chance to watch their daredevil teddy bears ride the church zip-wire.

Shute's Olympic sculptures

▲ CHILDREN from Elder Class with their Olympic sculptures

■ PUPILS from Elder Class at Shute Community Primary School joined forces with an artist to create two Olympic-inspired sculptures. The children came up with some initial ideas and then worked with Cornish artist Lucy Jackson in early June to bring them to life.

Lucy arrived at the school armed with simple sculptural frames made of timber poles and old dustbins. She then worked with the children with materials that included acrylic paint, papier mache and gaffer tape to create the two figures.

Headteacher Amanda Graham said: "I am very grateful to Lucy for helping the children bring their ideas to life in a way that really captures the spirit of the Olympics. They've also experienced, first-hand, what it's like to take a drawing and turn it into a three-dimensional object. The resulting sculptures are amazing."

News briefs

Plant fair

GARDENERS and plant enthusiasts will be heading for Burrow Farm Gardens in Dalwood on Sunday, July 1st for the Hardy Plant Society's plant fair.

The fair will run from 10am to 4pm and ten specialist nurseries will be attending, with a selection of trees, shrubs, climbers, roses, bamboos, perennials and alpine.

Event organiser Trevor Wood said: "Plant fairs are great for finding the kind of plants you won't see in many garden centres, at reasonable prices and the added bonus of expert advice thrown in."

"With lots of small, often family run nurseries, there's always a great selection for everyone."

The gardens will be open until 7pm for everyone to enjoy the new wildflower meadow and fabulous views after making their purchases.

Normal garden entry applies and food is on offer in the garden café.

Barn fire

FIREFIGHTERS from four stations – Axminster, Charmouth, Lyme Regis and Exeter – were mobilised to a barn fire at a farm in Hawkchurch.

The alarm was raised at about 5.15pm on Thursday, June 21st and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "The fire involved approximately four tonnes of hay in a single storey barn and was extinguished using two hose reel jets and small tools."

"Fifty per cent of the barn contents were severely damaged by fire and smoke. The cause is believed to be accidental."

Improve town for the future

■ I FORESEE a potential problem in Seaton which, if it is not resolved in the very near future, could become an unfortunate part of our next generation's heritage.

The public area in the proximity of the new Tesco store has never yet been officially named. Since Tesco has now been built and operating for well over six months the common parlance now refers to this area as "Tesco Square" or the "Tesco Public Open Space".

It is obviously necessary to designate such an area in order to be able to direct anyone to it so it is quite understandable that these names have been adopted.

Is this what Seaton wants?

I have nothing against Tesco as a company – indeed they may well have brought advantages to the Town – but, surely we can find a more meaningful or attractive locally oriented name for the open area?

I would like to know what steps our respective councils (Seaton Town Council and East Devon District Council) are taking to arrive at a name for which we could all be proud to direct visitors to before it is too late and the current name(s) stick.

If they are truly stuck for an answer, perhaps a request for public suggestions might provide the answer?

STAR LETTER

■ IS it not possible for business rates to be lowered in order to help our precious little shops?

It would be so tragic to lose any more of them. You can get personal, unhurried and tailor-made purchases and even if it sometimes may cost a little extra, just think of the time, petrol and stress saved by shopping locally.

Sadly, we all age and become less-able, making these shops ever more precious and once they've gone, that's it – too late, they don't come back.

Then, 'dear' councillors you won't get any business rates from them and we'll all suffer.

Mayor thanks his people for Jubilee

■ I WOULD like to take this opportunity to thank all the people of Honiton for supporting the range of Jubilee events taking place in the town over the Jubilee period, despite the appalling weather at times.

I would particularly like to thank the various members of the community and local organisations for working with the town council to organise tea parties, big lunch, fun and games event, band concert and talent show.

It is so good as the mayor to know how well the community can come together to make things happen for Honiton.

I would like to pay particular tribute to our market traders who contributed so generously to the hampers that were raffled at the street market on the Saturday of Jubilee weekend.

Through their generosity three hampers were provided for a free draw available to all people using the market on that day.

I know that in addition to the events in the town centre, many people took the opportunity to arrange their own street parties and garden parties and I hope that you all enjoyed the weekend as much as I did.

Cllr David Foster
Mayor of Honiton

■ LAST Devon County Council (DCC) has funds but chooses to ignore public rights of way.

According to local media information DCC has over £3 million in a reserve fund.

Reserved for what exactly?

We have no street lights at night, sporadic bin collections, limited roadside maintenance and dedicated public footpaths and cycle routes left to stagnate.

Is this what we are all paying our council taxes for? Just where is the money going to?

Who needs twinning with some remote town in France or Germany, or is this just another excuse for a freebie junket for the councillors?

We have just had a much promoted Jubilee weekend when tourists were treated to the sight of a weed-infested, overgrown nature trail that runs from Colyford Road through to the Underfleet.

■ DID you hear it?

I am referring to the excessive noise from the two 'farewell' events held in a huge marquee at Sector Lane recently.

While 10 decibels may be appropriate in a town hall with solid walls to contain the noise, the effect is far louder outdoors.

Valley View retirement complex is built along the southern boundary of the football ground.

Several of the poor residents, many of whom are unwell and over 90-years-old, were unable to go to bed, as the noise in their rooms was intolerable.

Bearing in mind that this has been promoted as a local area of outstanding natural beauty.....what exactly is beautiful about forcing your way through stinging nettles and weeds so high they almost obscure any oncoming people/dogs?

Heaven help anyone trying to negotiate their way through with a pram or buggy!

Apparently, this will be dealt with next week because the wet weather has been a hazard thus far.

Well, heaven forbid that we should have some dry weather because overgrown hedgerows are a fire hazard. Isn't Devon supposed to be a tourist attraction?

Are we happy that DCC has so much money to spend and doesn't spend it on making our Devon attractive?

Mrs J A warren
Seaton

They were forced to sit up in their communal room, wearing earplugs, until about 2am on two consecutive nights, until the revellers had gone home. Some had received warning letters whilst others had not.

As it transpires that football will continue to be played at Sector Lane for the foreseeable future, I hope that consideration will be given to the health and wellbeing of the residents trapped in their homes at Valley View, before permission is granted to the football club for future discos.

A cold Summer Solstice

AS I write it is the Summer Solstice, the longest day of the year. It should be warm, sunny and sparkling, a day in which to rejoice. Instead, it is cold, wet and miserable, a day more in tune with winter than summer! I rather suspect the modern Druids must have suffered a chilly, damp start to their dawn celebrations at Stonehenge.

The grass in the fields beside my office is growing ever taller by the day and turning to seed while the likelihood of my being able to cut and bale my acre for silage over the next week or so grows ever less likely. What a summer! Surely the gods will relent and allow us a few weeks of sun and warmth in July and August!

The Blackdown Hills AONB team will certainly need some decent weather in July to support their proposed wildflower sketching and map reading activities!

On Saturday, July 7th there will be an introduction to map reading at Membury village hall, which follows on from last November's beginners' course, although it's suitable for anyone with some basic knowledge. A quick refresher session will be followed by a walk around Membury to practice skills.

Then, on Sunday, July 15th artist Liz Gregory and botanist David Allen will lead a visit to Yarty Moor nature reserve where participants can learn about the wildflowers of the area and sketch them.

Other events in the Blackdown Hills July calendar include a Woodland Fair, Goren Farm wildflower weekends, a Big Bat Survey, butterfly walks and craft courses. For further details, call 01823 680681 or visit www.blackdownhillsaonb.org.uk

I have also heard from Richard Whiteside who, with his wife Alison, runs Wildside Experience. He tells me that he has a walk on Saturday July 14th, scheduled to look for nightjars and glow-worms.

An earlier walk, which I mentioned and was to take place on June 7th, had to be postponed due to desperate weather, but was re-scheduled for a week later and provided a fine sighting of a nightjar, churring and flying close by, while several more were spotted, plus young tawny owls and pipistrelle bats.

The meeting place for the July outing is the Forestry Commission car park near Crossways Farm on Blackdown Common, map ref ST124166. For further information call 01823 680931 or go to www.wildsideexperience.co.uk

What of the wildlife scene? Well, on the butterfly and moth front the story is fairly dire from my perspective. I have seen not a single brimstone, that lovely yellow butterfly (the female is white) which is usually a harbinger of spring, and while orange-tips were well represented in April, there have been only a handful of red admirals.

A few meadow browns are showing when the rains halt, but that has been the sum total so far on my patch. Tortoiseshells are now a rarity and I have not seen a peacock, yet all these were so commonplace a few years ago. As for moths ... where are they? There was a time when security lights would be a-flutter with a variety of moths and there was always the chance of seeing a hawkmoth round the flowers in the late evening. Now, nothing. It is so sad.

This, too, is the first year I can recall when swallows have failed to nest in the barn. A pair have appeared and are seen perching on the telephone wires and swooping for insects, but they have made no attempt to nest. It is most peculiar. Have any readers experienced a similar phenomenon I wonder?

Three years ago we had three pairs nesting, each double brooded so that by the end of the summer the air was filled with swallows, old and young. Now, nothing.

GYPSY and Purple Watkins stamped their mark on East Devon about a year ago when Gypsy started singing on the street of Sidmouth and other towns and cities in Devon, Dorset, Somerset and Cornwall. After years of travelling and singing, Gypsy and Purple knew that at some point they would need to settle down, so their two children, Shoshanah and Tannison could go to school. Gypsy continues to produce music, performing locally as a well-known musician and singer in Devon and the surrounding area.

● WHY are you called Gypsy and Purple?

MY favourite colour is Purple so that is why I chose the name for him. I love his Purple hair as he colours it himself and each time he does it different from the last time he coloured it! Purple chose my name because of the way I dress. I am expressive and creative. Also my name Gypsy is relevant because Charlie Chaplin is my distant relative, who was married to a girl he called Gypsy.

● HOW would you describe your concerts to people who have never been to see you?

A LOT of people think that I am an opera singer. I only started learning about opera when I was pregnant with Shoshanah in Spain. The songs I sing at the concerts are of a huge variety. I sing songs from Doris Day, Dusty Springfield and even Status Quo, along with Elvis Presley and Shirley Bassey. The show is entertaining and informal. The aim is for people to enjoy themselves and as Purple Says "expect the unexpected!"

● ON the back of your albums it says: AIMS Active Independent Mentoring Services Ltd (Making the Invisible Visible) what is this?

AIMS Ltd is the business that Purple set up to promote my career. As a professional mentor Purple believes that you have to enhance and empower people to believe that they can be successful. This helps me to achieve my goals in life.

● DO you have any up and coming gigs?

This Saturday (June 30th) we have our first concert at a new venue called Stowford Community Centre in

It's a mug mystery

MEMBERS of The Branscombe Project are hoping to solve what they call the World War I mug mystery.

The Branscombe Project was formed about 20 years ago and consists of people interested in the history of Branscombe and surrounding areas. Members are keen to establish the precise details of engraved pewter mugs, apparently given to men from the village who fought in World War One. One of those involved in the project is Alan Rockey.

His granddad, Harry Hansford, was presented with a mug, which has been in Alan's possession for some time. Alan said: "My uncle, Charles Hansford, gave it to me. I guess it is because it is coming up to 100 years since the beginning of the war that I have started to take greater interest. We want to know who commissioned them [the mugs], how many were presented, when they were presented and so on."

He, and fellow project members, have so far found 16 mugs and established that three other mugs have been lost. He said: "We want to try and collect as many mugs together as we can. We might do a service of celebration or something."

The mugs have an inscription saying "Branscombe Contingent, 1914-1919" plus the name of the person the respective mug was presented to. One of the 16 traced mugs had ended up in a Reading pub.

Anyone who knows of a mug or two - or the history behind them - is asked to call Alan on 07768 462197 or email contacts@branscombeproject.org.uk.

Sidmouth, which is pay on the door. We will return to The Henhayes Centre in Crewkerne, Somerset soon and are looking for a venue in Bridport, Dorset. We are also performing at Exeter Cathedral in February next year, so this is very special.

● WHAT do you do when you're not singing?

Apart from keeping the children busy we have a lot of hobbies. We love art, Purple loves painting contemporary when I encourage him, and I love drawing spiritual images with charcoal and pencil. One thing we love about Devon is that the little churches are so beautiful. I love to do Yoga and Purple likes a few beers while I'm doing it! Also dancing salsa, Tai chi and belly dancing - me not Purple! Together we enjoy aromatherapy, reading old books, bird watching at the local nature reserves, walking and writing new songs.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

PASTOR Darell Holmes writes from Kilminster:

With the Olympics and Paralympics coming into view, Kilminster Baptist Church spent their Father's Day service looking at the Paralympics, and the Baptist campaign to sponsor six athletes to come from Haiti to attend the event in a bid to challenge the cultural view there that people with disabilities have no value.

The initiative may be a drop in the ocean, but all change starts with one small step, and the Baptist Union will also be lobbying the government to promote inclusion policies for disabled people on all foreign aid projects. See www.undefeated.org.uk

There were two presents for the Prime Minister last week. One was the half-a-million-strong petition in favour of traditional marriage; the other was a submission from rather fewer members of the C of E putting forward the church's view of same-sex marriage. Interesting how it is known what the C of E thinks, because this has not been published! Nor is it yet clear what will happen to the women-bishops measure during the next Synod, but many will be hoping.

So on to local events - in Axminster, the one-hour Thursday lunchtime concerts continue at The Minster from 12:30pm; performances are followed by lunch. This week the Capriol Guitar Duo play. Donations for church fabric.

The week started for Branscombe with the first of their Songs of Praise on the beach. The next will be on August 12th at 6pm with the Honiton Town Band.

In Musbury, there will be a Songs of Praise to conclude their Flower Festival in the church at 6pm on Sunday.

And in Honiton, on St Paul's Church forecourt on June 30th, the town will be marking Armed Forces Day - all are invited to come along.

On the same evening, at Colyton Church, Exeter Chamber Choir offer a concert of madrigals, songs, jazz and spirituals at 7:30pm. The following day, at 10:45am, the younger members of the church choir offer a short concert in aid of the choir's bursary fund.

● Seaton church magazine this month reports that there are over 20 active groups of workers in the parish ranging from bell ringers to the Julian Prayer Group - is this a record? And it doesn't include at least another 20 who work directly on church tasks such as flowers, cleaning and music.

Andy is originally from Lyme Regis, but has been living in Axminster for the past 18 years. He has been trading for seven and a half years, with the last five and a half having been based in his current premises in Miltons Yard. He started out repairing guitars just as a hobby, but 25 years later he has turned it to a big part of his successful business.

Andy has made a name for himself locally with the well-known band The Relics, and has been playing guitar and singing semi professionally for 35 years. He is always happy to offer help and advice, so why not just pop in for a chat?

ENCHANTED Tree is run by Sarah Montague and she aims to sell a range of gifts and toys that are Fair Trade, Organic and sustainable. She is always actively searching for suppliers and manufacturers who make products that you cannot normally find in the High Street. Her range of gifts are both affordable, unique and ethical in their origins, and will please all tastes and ages from the youngest to the oldest of her customers.

Sarah stays in constant communication with the groups and co-operatives around the world who produce her range, with the view to making sure that the aims and aspirations of these fantastic organisations are kept to so that she can give feedback to her customers in the shop and online.

They were our halcyon days

WHEN old journalists get together, stand by for a late night!

The last dinner guests at the excellent Wheelwright Inn, Colyford, on Friday evening had long gone by which time we were deep into conversation about whether local newspapers will survive.

We all had a different view. By we I mean me and two of the best reporters I have worked with over a career spanning nearly 50 years - Geoff Baker and Mark Hollands.

I've lost count of the young reporters that have worked for me during that time but these two were top of the crop.

It's over 30 years since we last worked together during my first editorship at the Sidmouth Herald.

But one thing we did agree upon was that they were definitely our halcyon days.

Geoff went on to work on the entertainments desk for the Daily Star, followed by 15 years as Paul McCartney's head of PR; Mark emigrated to Australia where he worked as foreign editor on The Australian and then went into the dot.com world followed by a series of top jobs in the media which has enabled him to retire at 47!

GREAT sadness, especially among my age group, following the death of Sue Bounds in Axminster.

I grew up with Sue and went to the same school in Lyme Regis. We knocked around as youngsters and she went on to marry Les Bounds, my big football buddy in Axminster. They were the perfect couple. We did not meet that often in the intervening years but when we did she always asked after her home town.

Sue had fought her battle with cancer with great bravery and fortitude. Les told me at the recent dinner at Sector Lane that things were not looking good but her death still came as a shock to all who knew and loved her.

She had a delightful, quirky character and in our younger years she was always the life and soul of the party.

Our thoughts are with Les and her two sons, Jamie and Adam, and all Sue's family.

She was a very special lady.

EDITOR AT LARGE

Philip Evans

He was back in the Sidmouth area catching up on family and friends.

Mark joined me as a fresh faced cub reporter at the age of 16 on the princely sum of £23 a week.

Both were filled with ambition in our fun-filled Herald days and both ended up at the top of the tree in their incredible careers.

They both spoke with great affection of their days on the Herald and were kind enough to say that their time under my tutelage had an enormous influence on their lives.

Needless to say, I'm enormously proud of both of them and their considerable achievements.

■ TOGETHER AGAIN: Three old hacks (well one at least!)

Geoff is now back living in Lyme, having penned a brilliant book about the rock business. Last week he wrote an incisive piece on McCartney's 70th birthday for the Daily Mirror.

Mark returns to his family in Oz to enjoy the good life and concentrate on writing crime thrillers, promising to return again soon.

Rain sinks festival for first time in 18 years

ME and my big mouth, or should I say clumsy pen! Like many others, I got suckered into thinking summer had just arrived in my page three From the Editor's Chair editorial last week and was saying how much I was looking forward to the Axe Vale Festival.

The sunshine lasted no more than a couple of days before the rains returned and for the first time in 18 years the showground at Gammons Hill is so wet that the festival - one of the most popular and enjoyable one-day shows in Devon - has been cancelled.

The hard working committee behind the festival - led this year by Claire Morgan - have coped with inclement weather on a number of occasions in the past but have always managed to overcome. This year was different, such has been the verocity of the rain this week on an already soaking wet site. There was no hope of it going ahead.

Show or no show, perhaps this is as good a time to reflect on what an important role the Axe Vale Festival has played in helping worthy causes in and around Axminster. Since that very first show in 1994 the festival has raised nearly £300,000 with £186,000 going to the running costs of the Flamingo Pool in Axminster and a further £111,000 in donations to other groups and charities. Last year Axminster Heritage benefited to the tune of £20,000.

The organisers will have been mortified by having to call off the festival, such an important part of the summer scene in the Axe Valley.

Next year's show will return bigger and better over the weekend of June 22nd-23rd. Put it in your diary now.

Logical Energy

Solar Energy in a Discreet Package

DESPITE the promise of reduced electricity bills and a generous quarterly pay-out from the Government backed FITs, solar panels fall short for some on the most basic of issues – looks.

If this describes you, or your partners feelings towards solar energy, you may be interested in a new breed of solar panel from Axminster based Logical Energy in the form of CIS Thin Film.

Tried and tested throughout the world, as well as in climates close to our own, this elegant 'all-black' panel blends effortlessly with most roofing materials, and can be integrated into the roof structure itself – as shown here.

If looks matter when it comes to your home, CIS thin film certainly doesn't mean compromising pleasing aesthetics over substance. Far from it, the panel reaches its peak far quicker than its traditional counterpart and promises up to a 14% higher electricity generation. The result is a superior return on investment and faster payback.

You may be one of those homeowners, farmers or businesses where the positioning of your roof, shading issues or even cost rendered your good intentions prohibitive or even out of the question. If so, you may want to look again. CIS thin film is more robust, offering greater flexibility in terms of roof orientation and shading. In terms of cost, you will be pleasantly surprised to find a quote today is far lower due to panel prices responding to market fluctuation.

Manor Antiques Restoration

MANOR Antiques Restorations is a family run business with 20 years experience in the restoration and preservation of antique and period furniture.

The traditional craftsman's skills that they can offer range from veneering, marquetry, parquetry, cabinet making, wood turning, French polishing and sympathetic repairs, from the smallest scratch to the complete restoration of a piece of furniture.

In Manor Antiques' fully equipped work shop they are able to take on commissions for pieces of new or reproduction furniture made to the customers requirements.

They have an extensive portfolio which shows the high standard of work which is available for customers to look at to see the transformation of a restored piece of furniture. Manor Antiques also offer a carpentry and joinery service with items ranging from an ornamental oak front door, interior doors made from hard or soft wood, to fancy oak or pine plate racks. Their range is extensive and exclusive to your requirements. They can be found at Ellishayes, Coombe Raleigh which is on the Honiton to Dunkswell road.

The Honiton Garden Centre

THE Honiton Garden Centre will be officially opened at a Champagne Reception on the evening of June 29th by Councillor Graham Godbeer, EDDC Portfolio holder for the Economy. Tony Collins and Lisa Bartrop purchased the then closed Colour Wheel Plants site (A35 on the outskirts of Honiton) in June 2007 and have grown and invested in the business in the ensuing 5 years. Their aim was to bring a traditional and high class Garden Centre to Honiton and as of June 29th 2012, following substantial investment, the business will be formally opened as The Honiton Garden Centre.

Co-Owner Lisa Bartrop said 'We really like to think local, so the vast majority of our suppliers and growers are based nearby. It cuts down on transport, helps the environment and means that we can build great relationships with local businesses. All this means that we can deliver high quality products at the very best prices.'

Whether you are a green-fingered expert or gardening beginner, we have everything you need, including garden tools, fertilizers, lawn care, propagation aids and seeds to grow your own.'

Key Points

- The Honiton Garden Centre (As of 29th June 2012 - Formerly Colour Wheel Plants)
- 2006 - 2007
- Previous Colour Wheel Plants business closed for almost a year
- 2007 June
- Colour Wheel Plants business & site purchased by Lisa Bartrop and Tony Collins
- 2007 - 2012
- Over £350,000 in redevelopment including:
- New Shop 5,000 sq ft. and increased stock to 6,000 lines.
- New Car Park & Entrance.
- Enhanced café and restaurant facilities.

- Investment in environmentally friendly energy consumption methods & advanced rain water harvesting.
- Recently upgraded to a silver Green Tourism Business award, from a previous bronze award.
- Commitment to employing local people - currently employing 7 local people.
- A small but progressive rural business with a firm ethos around good customer service that supports the local supply chain, whilst seizing an opportunity to provide Honiton with a traditional horticultural based garden centre.

Open weekend at Axe Cliff Golf Club

AXE Cliff Golf Club has gone through several changes since New Owner Peter Crosby took over in December Last Year.

He Says – “Since taking over we have made many changes that improve the facilities of the club that are available to both members and non-members. Anyone is welcome to come and use the club whilst taking in the extensive breath taking views of the Jurassic Coast. With the Jurassic Coastal Walk going directly through the course, walkers are welcome to stop off and use the facilities to stock up on their energy.

Open all day, food is available including an all day Full English Breakfast, Langleigh Farm Ice Cream, Devon Cream Tea, Sunday Roast etc.

We are looking to expand our playing membership in particular our Junior Section. Golf is a great sport that the current TV advertising is promoting a “Sport for Life”. Golf is a great chance to meet new people not only to play the game and to keep fit, but also to socialise in the many social evenings we hold. Axe Cliff Golf & Country Club are inviting all, this weekend, to an Open Weekend for anyone wishing to come and see what have to offer. A complimentary Tea or Coffee awaits you!”

Pippa Greenwood to give talk at Forde Abbey

RENOWNED for her infectious passion for plants and home-grown produce, celebrity gardener and best-selling author Pippa Greenwood is coming to Forde Abbey on Sunday, July 1st to give a talk entitled “Grow Great Veg.”

Pippa Greenwood has been a familiar face on television for many years.

Pippa started her media career with Alan Titchmarsh on the gardening slot for BBC1's Daytime Live programme in 1988. For over 13 years she appeared regularly on BBC2's Gardener's World, presenting many items on garden pests and diseases, science and gardening, as well as creating and running an organic kitchen garden. Pippa has also appeared on many radio shows and other television shows. She writes regular features in many well known gardening magazines. Pippa lives in Hampshire on a windswept hillside with strongly alkaline heavy clay soils.

With this weird and wonderful weather we're having, Pippa is sure to be asked some searching questions after her talk. For tickets to Pippa Greenwood's talk, priced at £7 for RHS members and £9 for Non-RHS members, please call Forde Abbey on 01460 220231. The talk starts at 6.30pm and there will be plenty of time to ask questions, chat to Pippa and maybe have a book signed afterwards.

MEET THE COMPANY!

SEASON Tickets have recently gone on sale for the 26th Charles & Imogen Summer Play Festival at the Manor Pavilion.

This season has been hotly anticipated – so much so, that on Friday, June 1st queues formed at 7.30am in order to get the best seats at the best prices. The festival also attracts visitors from all over the country to Sidmouth each summer to enjoy one of the UK's only remaining weekly repertory company and the phones and email have been busy with enquiries and sales from far and wide.

This season features a wonderful line-up of productions and bringing them to life on stage will be directors Imogen Vance, Pat Brackenbury, Vernon Thompson and Su Gilroy. All four directors have years of Sidmouth seasons behind them and they, together with Jane Bennett who returns to direct again this year, are dedicated to bringing you the great theatre to which Summer Play Festival audiences have become accustomed.

Audiences will be transported by the inspired scenic designs of Robert Sherwood, who has been designing for Charles Vance since the early 1970s. Robert's sets will be illuminated by lighting designer Tony Hill who has been a part of the company for 15 seasons, and Tricia Barclay is back for her ninth season.

Making their Sidmouth debut this year are actors Paul Giles, Alec Gray, Sarah Griffin, Rhys Lawton and Annabel Pemberton.

Paul Giles began his acting career at an early age and worked in theatre and TV prior to attending Brunel University to read Modern Drama Studies. He is a member of a new theatre company Skin of Our Teeth and has appeared in the feature film The Addicted. Born in England, Alec Gray spent his formative years in Canada and trained at the American Academy of Dramatic Art in New York. Stage credits include Estragon in Waiting for Godot, Norman in The Dresser, and Flute in A Midsummer Night's Dream, among others and film credits include At Apollinaire's Grave and Deadly Eyes. Sarah Griffin is an American actress based in London following her MA at the Central School of Speech and Drama. Favourite performances include Antipholus of Syracuse in The Comedy of Errors, Pandora in The Winning Crowd and Mitsy Ferngarden in Future Cinema Presents: Buggy Malone. Rhys Lawton graduated from East 15 Acting School in 2008 and has appeared on stage, film and inside computers since then. Recent stage appearances include Covielle in a modern adaptation of Le Bourgeois Gentilhomme at Upstairs at the Gatehouse and Pip in the tour of Threadbare Greebo. Prior to her theatrical career, Annabel Pemberton was in the corporate world in London, Mexico and Australia. She is a graduate of Rose Bruford College. Stage credits include The Wild Goose Chase, Julius Caesar and The Comedy of Errors.

Familiar faces returning this season are Jane Bennett, Laura James, James Pellow and Leigh Steedman

Jane Bennett lives in Devon and is regular member of the Charles Vance Company. She first worked for Charles in his repertory company in Folkestone. In between these two stints of rep Jane has appeared in the West End, on tour and on television. She also writes, directs, produces and runs drama workshops for children and adults. Laura James returns for her second season. Over the past year, Laura has been filming a lead role in the feature film Shattered Summer. James Pellow returns for his 9th season and now considers Sidmouth his summer home. This is Leigh Steedman's fourth season with the Summer Play Festival having appeared in previous productions such as Rebecca, Absurd Person Singular and Night Must Fall. He has been a part of the Summer Play Festival since 2009. A Sidmouth native, Leigh trained at the Rep College and has appeared both on stage and screen.

Making special guest appearances this season are Janette Froud who has been with the company since 2002, Kirsty Cox, a member of the 2009 and 2010 companies, and radio personality Douglas Mounce.

This season promises to be one to remember! Don't miss a moment of it! Book your tickets today!

Tickets are now on sale at the Box Office at the Manor Pavilion Theatre, Manor Road, Sidmouth. Phone: 01395 57 99 77

Highly respected singer-guitarist to play next Jurassic Folk Guest Night

JURASSIC Folk's next Guest Night on July 4th features Paul Downes, one of the most respected artists on the British folk scene today.

He has been introduced (much to his embarrassment) as one of the greatest acoustic guitarists in the world. It is easy to see why when you see the dazzling array of styles he performs with effortless brilliance, but at the same time he considers himself as a singer of songs, rather than a guitar technician.

Paul has a rich musical background that has progressed through working with Phil Beer, The Arizona Smoke Revue, Pete Seeger and, currently, The Joyce Gang. Eight albums with bands, three highly acclaimed solo albums and over one hundred and fifty session credits have still left time for Paul to tour every concert venue, theatre and festival in Britain, plus many tours in the USA and Europe. Cabaret in the West Indies and newsreading on US radio are but two other strings to his guitar, and he has also developed into a very fine actor in the recent folk plays that he has appeared in.

The supporting acts on the night are Bob Kirkpatrick from Broadmayne in Dorset, and our very own Bard of Seaton, Ted Dowse, both of which Paul says he'd be happy to pay money himself to see any time. So a fabulous evening is assured. It all happens at the Grove, Seaton, and the doors are open at 7.45pm. Advance tickets at £5 are available on the website www.eastdevonfolk.org or by phoning 01297 20064.

The Eyre Court Hotel, Seaton

GARY and Rachel Daniel took ownership of the Eyre Court Hotel just over a year ago and have built up a good reputation for providing excellent food at reasonable prices. Shaun Llewellyn has been with them since they took over, being promoted to Head Chef last August.

Shaun is a self-taught Chef with 11 years' experience. As a keen fisherman himself, he particularly enjoys cooking fresh locally caught fish and his home-made desserts are always very well appreciated. He also specialises in special occasion cakes including the Helicopter cake he made for the Devon Air Ambulance Coffee Morning in March.

"Shaun is passionate about food and produces consistent high quality dishes. We are very please with the positive feedback we receive from customers. We are launching a new menu for the summer with lots of classic favourites together with some new exciting dishes".

The White Hart, Wilmington

THE White Hart, Wilmington is a traditional style thatched Devon inn on the busy A35 just outside Honiton. You can always be sure of a warm welcome here. The pub burned down in 2004 but was sympathetically rebuilt in 2005, the only original part remaining is the inglenook in poachers; you can still see the soot marks from the fire. Now our two resident greyhounds sleep on their twin sofas in the fire place and we welcome other dogs in the bar and restaurant! Steve our chef has been cooking for 20 years in various establishments in Devon in many different ways from tapas to traditional pub cooking. He has designed a core menu for lunch and an evening menu which is complemented by the specials board which changes daily. We source all our food supplies from the south west, supporting locally where possible. If you have visitors we have 3 well appointed letting rooms this comes with a bumper breakfast! We run a series of events throughout the year check out our facebook page for updates!

The White Hart

The White Hart is a traditional style real Devon pub serving real Devon food and drink, we serve fresh food cooked to order using local suppliers.

A warm welcome is guaranteed!
We try to be part of the community by being open all day and serving food all day.

We have a number of events that run every month please visit our website for further details

The Bay Hotel, Lyme Regis

I HAVE lived in Lyme Regis for over 20 years and could not think of a nicer place on the Jurassic Coast to be.

I feel extremely privileged to be living in this part of the country within a thriving community of farmers, fisherman, suppliers and small holders who provide me with an abundance of produce from fruit to fish right on my doorstep.

For the last 3 years I have worked for the Celebrity Chef and Patron, Mark Hix at his Oyster and Fish House having learnt my trade in local restaurants in and around Lyme Regis and London.

I have a great passion for food and through 'The Bay Leaf' I hope to incorporate as much fresh, locally sourced ingredients as possible to my contemporary take on English cooking. As such the menu will reflect seasonal changes as well as availability of ingredients

If you have any special dietary requirements or questions about the menu please feel free to ask my team and we will endeavour to accommodate you."

Wheelwright Inn, Colyford

MARK Blaise Barton has developed his career internationally. Mark has landed back in the UK after working in Sidart Auckland - New Zealand. Prior to this Mark's career development has been in Australia. Prior to traveling Mark has worked in London at Galvin & Windows a 1 Michelin Star restaurant also The Capital in Knightsbridge with Eric Chavot a 2 Michelin Star boutique hotel. On our first meeting Mark told me that his inspiration and motivation has come from working alongside Eric Chavot at The Capital in Knightsbridge and traveling the world absorbing all the different countries cuisines. "understanding flavors, the importance of a balance of ingredients and not over compensating the dishes" are just a few of his wise words. Mark also said "it is not location location location but local local local ingredients that will make The Wheelwright yet again a top pub restaurant in Devon, cooking fantastic food".

Seaton agent recognised as a property professional of excellence!

LOUISA Merritt has successfully passed an NFOPP Technical award in Residential Letting and Property Management. This well-respected Award is not only a nationally recognised industry qualification but is also an entry requirement of the Association of Residential Letting Agents (ARLA) – the only professional, self-regulating body specialising in raising and maintaining practice standards in the UK private rental sector.

Louisa has been working as a Senior Negotiator in the Seaton area for 3 years. Previously she worked for SW Property Services for 4 years before taking a break to have family and more recently owning her own retail business. Having lived in Seaton all her life, Louisa has an excellent knowledge of the town and its properties.

Louisa said "I am thrilled the hard work has paid off and I have secured the Technical Award. For me, it is not only a personal achievement but evidence of our professionalism as an agency, showing our clients that they are dealing with someone who is knowledgeable and who they can trust to do a good job."

Nicola Spurgeon, Office Manager and Lynn Richardson who work alongside Louisa at FSB Rentals Ltd said "We could not be more proud of Louisa's achievement. We strongly believe Seaton landlords and tenants will vote with their feet in support of an agency that is staffed by hard-working property professionals of intelligence and integrity like our Louisa.

From small acorns to delightful oak tree

FULFORDS in Budleigh Salterton together with Country-wide Land & New Homes are delighted to be marketing the brand new Oak Tree development in Budleigh, in conjunction with local Developer G B House & Son Ltd.

Oak Tree is a superb collection of just five 2 & 3 bedroom semi detached and terraced properties, centred around a truly magnificent oak tree from which it naturally takes its name. Conveniently situated in a popular residential location, this select development is within easy reach of the seafront & town centre whilst the local store and primary school are within walking distance.

With the development now complete, each of these fine homes are now ready for occupation. So, why not be one of the first to view at our Open House on Saturday 30th June from 11am – 1pm.

Built to a high standard, each cottage style home has a contemporary kitchen with a range of integrated appliances, reception room and cloakroom. The 3 bedroom terrace houses also have en-suite facilities to the master bedroom. Outside are south facing rear gardens and private parking. Each benefits from an Architects Certificate.

Prices start from £215,000. For further details and to book your viewing call Fulfords Budleigh Salterton Office on 01395 443758 or e-mail budleigh@fulfords.co.uk

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Lindy Parry Chiropodist / Podiatrist

I have been running my private chiropody / podiatry clinics at Townsend House Surgery for over 3 years and due to demand I have recently increased my days, now holding clinics on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary. My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

CARING FOR THE ELDERLY

Glory Days

AU-PAIRS for the elderly

Are you elderly, living alone, needing a helping hand?
Have you considered employing a live in au-pair?

Perhaps you thought Au-pairs are exclusively for children
Au-pairs are also suitable for helping elderly couples or singles.
Hundreds of active pensioners in need of companion/carers live happily with an Au-pair.
The Au-pair becomes a family member, they help in everyday life, so you can continue in your usual lives.
At night you're not alone, you live in your own home, day time an Au-pair can provide company.
An Au-pair can help with, light house work, washing, ironing, cooking, tidying, shopping, car driving and pet care.
Sadly an Au-pair is not a nurse and should not be required for medical purposes.
The Au-pair movement exists to arrange accommodation for young people from abroad.
Salary is paid weekly as "pocket money"
They will be provided with their own room, lighting, heating, food and friendship, in return for brightening the daily lives of lonely people who need reliable help and companionship.

Taking Off The Pressure!

THIS should now be a good time to get your driving out of the way. Your exams coming to an end more free time and hopefully more relaxed. Your complete full driving licence should be the icing on the cake!

And of course essential to your future prospects gaining your freedom and independence is a wonderful thing.

Learning to drive safely for life need not be over expensive with a good top grade instructor because you will need less lessons (not quantity but quality). And learning to drive correctly can be fun and rewarding, so why not give me a ring, have fun, save money, and become a good safe driver, that's my aim and is should be yours as well.

By the way you will be driving the latest Clio TomTom (so easy to drive).

Millions more Britons will take a holiday this summer

MILLIONS more Britons will take a summer holiday this year to get away from the miserable weather, sports overload and a second year without one, new figures suggest. And it could provide a welcome boost to the nation's hard hit holiday industry who are struggling to fill spaces on planes and rooms in hotels.

Last year more than one in four (26 per cent) chose not to go away during the summer, hoping for a bit of sun at home instead and to save cash.

But this year that figure has fallen to just one in five (21 per cent) said the survey by satnav firm TomTom.

And many more are jetting off during June and July this year, suggesting the reason may be to avoid the big national occasions.

Almost as many (21 per cent) are taking their holidays in June and July as August (22 per cent) said the poll.

But last year only 17 per cent went away in June, 18 per cent in July while August was easily the most popular month with 24 per cent, TomTom's figures reveal.

It marks a change in attitude among cash-strapped Britons with almost a third (31 per cent) looking for sunshine and 42 per cent who say they just want to 'relax'.

And only 22 per cent have chosen the cheapest option for their break, suggesting the end of the big 'staycation' revolution and a return to sun, sea and sand abroad.

Spain, including Majorca and the other islands, remains the most popular single destination and the Euro crisis has not put people off going to other sunspots on the continent.

Almost seven in ten (69 per cent) admit their summer holiday is 'important' to them.

If money were no object, 38 per cent of all UK adults would go to a tropical paradise island and 14 per cent would choose a cruise.

TomTom's research also found almost one in five (18 per cent) will be renting a car on their holidays, although only a third (34 per cent) claim never to have got lost.

A spokesman for TomTom said: "Every cloud has a silver lining - in this case literally because the weather has been so awful it has persuaded many to go on holiday."

"Money is tight but enough is enough and a lot of those who gave up their summer holidays last year and ended up in British drizzle are not prepared to do the same this year, it seems."

"We hope everyone has a great time but be careful not to get lost in a strange country if you are hiring a car. That's where we come in."

The findings come as TomTom launches a competition to create road maps of tropical islands like Fiji, St. Lucia, Mauritius, Cape Verde and the Seychelles and to pay the winners £10,000 for doing so.

Just fill in the form at www.tomtom.com/summer

No mapping experience is needed, but TomTom is looking for people with a decent sense of direction who enjoy exploring beautiful places.

Major improvements for new Kia Sorento

- New chassis amongst the significant changes to Sorento
- Fresh, new look exterior with LED lights and 19-inch alloy wheels
- Extensive range of new convenience and safety technologies
- UK specification details to be released in the autumn

KIA'S hugely successful Sorento SUV will receive a host of significant improvements when the new upgraded model goes on sale later this year. Significant changes include a re-engineered bodyshell, enhanced powertrains for best-in-class fuel economy with lower emissions, improved ride, handling and refinement, additional convenience and safety features, plus a fresh, new look for the exterior.

"Since its introduction in 2009, the second-generation Kia Sorento has achieved more than 620,000 sales around the world. Today, it is manufactured in Korea and the USA, attracting over 130,000 U.S. customers last year to rank as the best-selling Kia model in the States for the second year in a row," commented Thomas Oh, Kia's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of the International Business Division. "We have given very careful attention to owners' feedback, and the upgraded Sorento is not just a cosmetic exercise but a major step forward for our popular SUV."

Kia's designers have created new headlamps with LED positioning lights, a new tailgate with LED rear combination lamps, new bumpers (front and rear) with vertical-axis fog lights and a larger area of body-color surface, and an expanded choice of wheels to include larger diameter (19-inch) alloys – depending on market.

Inside the five- or seven-seater cabin, there are more soft-touch surfaces plus a new LCD instrument cluster, new center stack with 7-inch display screen, and a new console featuring a straight-gate selector with a leather-booted lever on automatic transmission models – reinforcing the vehicle's more luxurious character. Offered in black or beige cloth or leather, the interior can be bathed in natural light through a larger panoramic sunroof (depending on version) with no centre cross beam and a powered blind.

New Sorento is due to arrive in the UK in the autumn and full details of UK specification and trim will be available in due course.

B DIVISION

Axminster v Alphington

AXMINSTER 1st team played against Alphington at Cloakham and for the fourth week on the trot Paul Miller won the toss and asked the opposition to bat first.

Dan Fuzzard got into the wickets in the first over, claiming the opening batsmen with an inside edge which was sharply taken by Bradley Cross.

Matthew Pile bowled Alphington's overseas player with a beautiful yorker soon after.

N.Ainscough for Alphington rode his luck throughout his entire innings scoring 107 not out and with captain Paul James (52) sent Alphington to 248 for 7 wickets.

Bowling figures included D.Fuzzard 2-48 off 7, M.Pile 1-43 off 10 and Tristan Wakeley 2-12 off 2.4 overs.

In reply Axminster got off to a good start scoring over five an over, but Ryan Walker was bowled and Paul Miller soon followed.

This brought Tristan Wakeley to the crease and, with Dan still batting well, added 96 for the third wicket.

With Axminster looking good to knock off the remaining runs, disaster struck when Tristan was out lbw for 63. After this Matthew Pile and Ben Libby were out within the space of three balls, bringing N.Taylor to the crease.

Dan and Nick stayed at the crease for the remaining overs bringing Axminster to the 200 run mark, ensuring the losing draw and the five batting points.

Axminster finished 210 for 5 with Dan unbeaten on 63 and Nick on 24 not out. Axminster claimed 10 points and Alphington 13.

2ND XI C DIVISION

Honiton v Kingskerswell

HONITON's skipper Andrew Lapping, on winning the toss, decided to put the home team under pressure by bowling first on a damp pitch.

The openers negotiated bursts from Andy Brinsford and Jake Pulman without undue difficulty, but the runs only came in dribs and drabs.

It wasn't until the 19th over that a change in bowling finally saw the first wicket as Craig Lapping got one to dribble backwards onto the stumps, but 67-1 was still a remarkably good start for the Kingsmen given the conditions.

Opener Chris Davis went past a well crafted 50 before Andy Canniford picked up his fourth victim to finish with 4 for 36.

Hill finally got a look in, with 2 for 25 and Andy Brinsford returned to bag some bunnies and finish with 3 for 23 and the Kingsmen had gone from 67-0 to 153 all out.

Honiton's reply got of to a poor start with the top three batsmen back in the clubhouse with barely 20 runs on the board.

Crisis time again. And what better men for a crisis than Craig and Andrew Lapping? The pair looked in control for a while before C Lapping aimed a big one towards long on and found himself heading home for only 5.

A Lapping, meanwhile, made (more) hay as the sun ceased to shine and the, now customary, daily dose of drizzle started as Honiton sibsided to 48-6.

Andrew Lapping found the fence, but when he went for what would comfortably transpire to be the top score (42, featuring three 6s and three 4s) it was hard pressed to see Honiton up for the win and Honiton finished cold, wet and soggy at 88 all out.

Honiton's captain called on his batsmen to put a higher price on their wickets to avoid slipping into a relegation scrap.

Andrew said: "Some of the shot choices - including my own - gifted them to many of our wickets and it's not for the first time this year.

"We may not be having much luck so far this season so we are going to have to make our own luck to turn things around. We have the players to do it they just need to up there game"

SOMERSET CRICKET LEAGUE

DIVISION EIGHT (S)

All Saints v Taunton Deane

A BITTERLY disappointing fielding performance let All Saints down against a side they felt they should have beaten.

After crucially losing the toss, All Saints battled to 134-7 with Mike Nunn top scoring on 65.

Saints would have felt confident defending the total given the conditions, however five clear chances were dropped in an abject fielding performance, and the lack of pressure allowed Taunton Deane Crusaders to cruise to victory with seven overs to spare.

ON THE SPOT...

Q How long have you been involved in the local cricket scene? Who have you played for?

A I have been playing cricket since I was seven years old at Seaton as a colt, and have played for the club ever since.

Q Name the three best players you played alongside so far and why.

A Mike Cottam - great all-rounder with vast experience who's widely respected around the county. Ben Coombes - an Aussie spin bowler and top order batsman who made it into the Premier's League representative side. Richard Arbuthnot - a/k/a 'boff' - a player who would literally put his body on the line when fielding.

Q What's the best away ground you've played on?

A Exeter Civil Service's Foxhayes Ground as it is always a great batting track where we've always hit high scores for the loss of just a few wickets.

Q Do any games stick in your memory?

A The first game of the current season is one I'll remember for a long time. We ended up losing a match we should have won, by losing our last wicket on the very last ball of the game, falling three runs short!

Q How would you improve things at Seaton CC?

A Well the youth set-up and facilities are of a decent standard for a club our size, so I'll have to go with improving some of the senior players' music taste as they don't approve of the pre/post-match music. And also not forgetting the third shower - as it hasn't worked for the past two years!

Q What is your top score/best bowling performance?

A My best batting score is 85, and as I'm a wicket keeper (or attempt to be), I don't get the chance to bowl.

Q Name some young players we should look out for in the future.

A Reid Mawdsley - currently scoring centuries in the Devon U15 side, and already a pretty solid 1st team player. Niall Waterhouse - a colt player getting some high scores in our 2nd team. Tim Mitchell - a bright prospect, close to being a good county level all rounder.

bowls round up

SEATON BOWLS CLUB
with Linda Stone

THE week started with a friendly match against Pelham Bowling Club from Bournemouth. Four rinks and two triples played on a lovely Sunday afternoon. Seaton won 133-94; our top rink was L. Hurley-Smith, T. Johnson, P. Whitworth and I. Steer. They won 33-14.

Our next match was against Donyatt. This was changed from rinks to triples as Donyatt were short of players, but a really enjoyable game ensued, Seaton winning 80-63. Our top triple was R. Sykes, R. Holding and J. Russell.

On Wednesday the ladies played a re-arranged game in the Ladies Over 50s league against Shaldon. The result was a win for Seaton, gaining six points, winning both triples and overall. The score was 37-21.

Thursday saw the rain returning and our match against Budleigh Salterton was cancelled. However, on Friday the clouds disappeared again and the ladies played another Over 50s league game.

Crediton 'Green' gave us a real fight, but we eventually won one triple by four shots and lost the other by three, giving us the overall win by just one shot and gaining four points.

FENITON BOWLS CLUB
with Roger Smith

THE men's team continued its return to form in the County Trophy with a win against local rivals Honiton by 94-62 to score eight points. The two winning rinks were both at Honiton: R Cooke, E Cox, D Evans and K Lovering 31-13 and G Phillips, A Evans, Ro Clarke and R Smith, 28-11.

The men's over 60s 'A' team lost a close match against Tiverton A by 32-33, gaining just one point for a drawn rink. The 'B' team defeated Madeira D by 39-35. The winning rink was G Phillips, L Ley and Ro Clarke 17-8.

The mixed team had a good victory away at Heavitree winning by 97-83. The winning rinks were E Goode-nough, G Skinner, A Coyne and R North 23-12, S Goode-nough, J Skinner, G Smith and R Cooke 21-14, N Cox, D Sanders, D Evans and L Ley 25-19 and D Phillips, L Crook, A Smith and J O'Sullivan 22-19.

■ HONITON Netball Club's Under 12 and Under 14 teams recently went to the Exeter and District Summer Open Tournament, competing against other clubs from across Devon.

Both teams performed well winning all but one of their matches and both finishing runners-up in their age groups - a fitting end to a season that has seen them continue to improve.

The club are holding a free taster session for Year Six girls on Wednesday, June 27th from 7-8pm at Honiton Primary School.

The club welcomes new members from school years 7 to 11 at any time.

Local swimmers in regional champs

SIX young Chard & District Swimming Club swimmers qualified to compete at this year's ASA South West Regional Junior Age Group Championships for 14 years and under swimmers, held over two weekends at Millfield School, WRITES HANNAH PULLINGER.

To compete at this level swimmers need to have previously achieved the necessary qualifying times for their age, allowing them to race against the best swimmers in the South West of England. Three of the swimmers achieved qualifying times for the first time to swim at these Championships - all in the 100m Backstroke event: Oliver Bilbie 14, Susan Ross 12, and Lewis Pearson 12.

All swam personal bests in their events. Melissa Hanson, 14, has gained qualifying times for the last two years and also swam the 100m Backstroke this year, achieving a personal best time.

Jamie Pullinger, 13, has competed at the Regional Championship over the last four years and this year swam in both the 100m and 200m Backstroke gaining good personal best times, including an eight second personal best in the 200m event.

Elisha Hawkins, 12, was swimming in her third Regional Championship and this year swam in 100m and 200m Breaststroke, 400m and 200m Individual Medley.

Elisha reached the finals of both Breaststroke events with a three-second personal best time in each, coming sixth in the 100m and winning a bronze medal with third in the 200m event, narrowly missing out on National Qualifying times in both.

● Chard Swimming Club are always looking for new members at all levels, and have recently started a 'learn-to-swim' class allowing younger children to join the Club. If you would like to find out more or arrange a free trial please visit our web-site at www.chardswimming.org

Rugby honour for Colyton's John

A LEAVER'S service and annual prize giving left many with smiles on their faces and tears in their eyes in equal measure at Brymore School, a unique state boarding school in Somerset.

All of the Year 12s were presented with the Brymore 'spur' cufflinks and the Year 11's were given Brymore wallets.

Individual and team successes were acknowledged throughout the ceremony with the school cricket, hockey and rugby teams all receiving a nod to their achievements throughout their time at the school.

The All Blacks Jersey, a prestigious individual award, was presented to Colyton boy John Hurford for his achievements and successes in the senior rugby team.

athletics half-ironman Good results for local duo

ON Sunday, June 17th 2000 people descended on Wimbleball Lake on Exmoor to take part in the UK70.3 Half Ironman.

This race has been described as the toughest of its distance in the world, and this year it definitely lived up to the expectation. After a week of heavy rain and wind, Wimbleball Lake was very high, meaning the water was very cold, 14 degrees to be precise!

The bike course of 56 miles including 54 hills speaks for itself and the Multi Terrain Half-marathon run course was very wet and boggy in places, making it even tougher than usual.

Richard Easton had a fantastic race, with 26:06 for the swim, coming out of the water 12th overall!

He then stormed around the bike course in 2:56:23 giving some of the Pros a good race. Easton then ran 1:39:23 for the half-marathon, but due to leg cramps, had to dig extremely deep finishing 63rd overall in 5.07.33.

Luke Reed had a very good swim completing the 1.2 miles in 31:20. Then onto the bike feeling very cold from the swim, he had a tough time, but was very pleased to complete the 56 miles in 3:14:06.

At this point the run was all about just trying to get around the half-marathon course, which Reed did in 1:43:40, giving him an overall time of 5:37:17 and an excellent 197th place out of around 2000 finishers.

football summer news

THERE will be a brand new team taking it's place in division four when the Perry Street League begins the 2012-13 season in August, WRITES HOWARD LARCOMBE.

Kingsbury (Episcopi) were elected into the league at last week's annual meeting held at Perry Street club. The team will be managed by ex-West & Middle Chinnock Reserves team player Darren Hinton.

Ironically, the Chinnock's second-string are one of two teams to relinquish their places in the league – the other being Norton Athletic.

Hinton was keen to stress the situations were not linked, he said: "Kingsbury have been playing in the Taunton Sunday League for some time. But I had a few games for West & Middle Chinnock and was impressed with the league set-up. The club has therefore decided to switch leagues. But it is not a case of the W&M Chinnock Reserve team changing to Kingsbury."

A number of awards were made at the evening, one of these saw Uplyme Reserves scoop the Bob Hall Fairplay award with an impressive average mark of 9.2 awarded by referees administering their matches.

Crewkerne Town stalwart Darren Frost was awarded the Linesman of the Year award with Wayne Ridout picking up the referee's equivalent (Jim Jowatt Trophy). Bob Brunt presented his Secretary of the Year award to Netherbury's Lee Stork.

Finally, Lyme Regis striker Pete Peacock picked up the Denis Parsons Golden Boot award having scored 48 goals for the Bantams and two for the Reserves.

New penalty shoot-out rule

Other news to emerge from the meeting is that the Chard Hospital Cup will now be wholly consigned to midweek matches and that the PSL would be re-admitting representative teams into the Mavis Tate and Durnford (under 18) cups.

Six clubs voted in favour of adopting the 'rolling subs' idea currently being muted by the Football Association. But the sextet were outvoted with clubs suggesting, amongst other comments, that this would give an unfair advantage if a team had a 16-man squad against a 'bare bones' team of 11.

The FA have instigated one new law that has to be adhered to regarding cup finals. If, after normal and extra-time, it is too dark to take penalty kicks then both teams and officials will be required to return a week later to the same venue...just for the penalty shoot-out!

youth cricket report

Ottery St Mary U13s 47 Budleigh U13s 20

A COMBINATION of good bowling and fielding together with some disastrous running between the wickets meant that Budleigh were set a target of only 48 to win this U13s clash.

Four of Ottery's top six were run out due to some poor decision making and good fielding.

Off spinner Alex Craib then cleaned out the middle order finishing with Budleigh's best figures of 3 for 11 as Ottery were dismissed for a lowly 47.

However, excellent bowling saw Budleigh reach only 12-1 after eight overs.

Tom Jeacock then bowled a triple wicket maiden, followed by a wicket maiden from Joe Henkus leaving Budleigh reeling on 12-5 from ten.

Budleigh were eventually bowled out for just 20 with Jeacock finishing with figures of 3.2-2-5-4.

golf round up

SOPHIE CROWNED WEST OF ENGLAND CHAMPION

ON Sunday, June 17th Sophie Keech travelled to Bath with clearer skies for The West Of England Ladies Amateur Open feeling confident after returning from County Match week with four out of four wins under her belt in the matchplay competition held in Trevoise in Cornwall.

With all her five England Select Squad team colleagues involved, the competition was far from easy.

After the first 18 holes, Sophie ended up level with back-to-back birdies in her round. During the second round there was a Race For Life Event with Heart FM in attendance near the course, maybe a distraction, but Sophie's highlight was hearing the music and putting-out to Michael Jackson!

During the afternoon round the weather changed for the worse but the green keepers cut the greens and repositioned the pins making the course more of a challenge.

Sophie played a solid round and her short game was outstanding, she ended up 1 over par for the two rounds leaving her the 2012 champion of the competition previously won by the likes of Tricia Johnson and Laura Davies.

The author, Diney Costeloe, sponsors the competition and gave all the players one of her novels and presented the winning salver to Sophie.

Harper woe as title bid fails

THERE was no victory march for Kevin Harper as his Powerade PGA Assistant's Championship swansong was another tale of woe as he finished second for the third year in succession.

It simply was not to be for the Sidmouth Golf Club assistant, who came to East Sussex National determined to make his final visit a winning one.

Instead, having led for two days, it all unraveled as Rothley Park's Matthew Cort kept his cool to retain the title and become the first player in over 60 years to achieve that feat.

But it all looked to be going to so well for Harper who opened up a three shot lead after eight holes, but a triple bogey at the ninth coupled with a double bogey at the 13th played their part in his two-over-par 74.

It left him three-under for the week, tied with Didsbury Golf Club's Tom Murray, and two shots behind Cort, who carded a 71 to finish at five-under.

It was a bitter pill to swallow, but Harper reflected positively on his three years competing in the tournament – despite never getting his hands on the trophy.

He said: "No-one should be disappointed with finishing runner-up, but the sore point is it's three years in a row and I had a really good chance to win it this year.

Great experience

"It's been a great experience and great tournament. I love this place every time I come here I play well.

It was another great tournament and I would have loved to have won, especially with the incentive of the Play-Offs that would have been a big thing for me then as you never know what could happen from that."

Harper's consolation was a cheque for £2,475. He now intends to compete on the PGA Europro Tour as he looks to return to playing full-time.

"Playing is the ambition," he said. "I've just turned 30 and obviously I'll have to make a serious decision in a couple of years.

■ Kevin Harper

Axminster Town AFC Youth Development

As part of the continued development the club will be running the following youth teams for the coming season

Under 18's

The formation of a new team - all matches will be midweek under floodlights. Players are free to play for their existing club at the weekend.

Under 16's, 14's and 12's

The formation of new teams at these levels. New players needed to add to existing players to further develop youth team structure. Midweek training and coaching with weekend matches.

running Axe Valley

NEW AVR Tom Bland lined up at the start of the South West Coast Path in Minehead earlier this month with a New Zealander called Mal who he had only met the day before, WRITES DAVE MUTTER.

The pair's aim is to run the entire 630 miles in less than two weeks, that's an average of 45 miles per day for a fortnight! The fastest previous time they are aware of is a week longer.

The first day was just over 40 miles long with 10,000' of ascent, that's two Grizzlies in distance but four in climb, which took them a steady 9:40.

Even Garry Perratt and Chris Irving, who alternately paced the pair that day and are no strangers to hilly runs, returned home very tired.

One down, 13 to go. More details of their run and the charities for which they are raising funds can be found at www.coastpathrun.co.uk

The Junior June handicap was won by Caitlin Bee in a new personal best of 16:48; James Knapp was 2nd in 15:26, Ed Polley 3rd in 16:39 and Ethan Day 4th in 17:24. Caitlin now heads the Junior rankings with 114 points, Max Bowskill is second with 95 and May Wood third with 80 points.

With numbers down due to the England footy, Martin Croad roared to victory in the senior event, knocking nearly a minute off his PB, finishing in 23:39. Eleanor Wood was 2nd in 24:38, James Sibley 3rd in 25:12, James Guler 4th in 21:21 and Ian Clements 5th in 24:31.

Martin now has an impressive lead on the rest with 100 points; James Guler is 2nd with 79 and James Sibley is 3rd with 71 points.

Shortly after the beginning of the Over The Hill and Farway 10K race there is a mountainous hill more than one kilometre long.

Most people's legs have turned to rubber by the time they reach the top after which there is a chance of recovery with a long downhill stretch.

Running conditions were perfect with warm sunshine and soft breezes. It's not often races are won by a 60-year-old, but first home was AVR's Phil Bayliss in 43:31, hotly pursued by Aaron Smith of Sidmouth RC in 44:01. Next AVR, in 5th place was Martin Croad in 47:35.

The first lady home was Julie Payne of Honiton Running Club in 49:28. Graham Reeves of Honiton RC was third overall. Sue Venn was delighted to have cut two minutes from her previous time by completing it in 64:20.

Harry Moore was pleased with his time of 1:40 which was quicker than last year. Harry put this down to the recent up-hill races. The winners of the shorter Junior Races were Felix Williams (U10s) in 11:35 and 10-14 years William Tynes in 15:09.

Robin Britton travelled into deepest Dorset for the Puddletown 20K - a very pleasant course with plenty of undulations and an unusual distance for a road race. He enjoyed the sunshine and finished 22nd in 1:31:56.

There were 26 teams of four runners in the first of the Inter-club Woodland Relay races hosted by AVR, utilising the superb Moganhayes woodlands trails.

Exmouth Harriers 1 team were the victors with a combined time of 39:38. AVR Men 1: Chris Keefe, Alex Todd and Garry Perratt were 2nd with 40:51; AVR Men 2: James Jackson, Jon Day and Garry Perratt, 3rd, 42:37.

Honiton Juniors; Ian Ross, Henry Riddle and Jack Elson ran well to finish 5th overall in 44:37. Honiton Junior girls: Lydia Clapp, Flo Swann and Ruth Squires were the first female team to finish, 9th overall in 49:27.

netball Honiton

ONLY three games were played this week as Hi Q did not fulfil their fixture against Sidmouth Toucans, meaning they forfeited the game 8-22, and lose three points – with Toucans picking up the three points and moving two places up the table.

At the top of the table Flamingos moved into the top spot, with Wasps up into second place and with OPG dropping back to third. At the foot of the table the three bottom places were unchanged.

Flamingos moved to the top after completing a demolition job on Howden Hawks, despite the Hawks starting with a 10 goal lead! With Sarah Clark in great defensive form for Flamingos they had overcome the deficit and were leading 21-17 at quarter time. Flamingos then dominated the play despite the efforts of the Hawks centre Meg Falkner. They ran out winners by a staggering 74-29 score line.

Wasps started their game against Tip Top Trees with an eight goal deficit that they had wiped out by quarter time with the score at 13-13.

With Sophie Bray playing well the Trees confounded expectations by moving into a 21-19 lead at half way. They continued to have the advantage in the third period to start the final quarter 26-22 in front.

Wasps then upped their game with a steely determination and with Jackie Ditchburn strong in defence the Wasps overturned the arrears to win by 33-29. A fine come back.

The other game played saw Bo-Peeps win over JD Tyres move them back into fourth place. JD started the game 12-6 in front but by quarter time it was a single goal that separated the sides – 18-17 to JD.

With Debbie Wheeler playing well the Peeps were 28-20 up at half way. By the start of the final quarter Bo-Peeps led 39-26. With Tania Broom doing well for JD Tyres the final quarter went goal for goal with Bo-Peeps running out winners by 47-34.

RESULTS: Bo-Peeps 47 JD Tyres 34, Hi Q 8 Sidmouth Toucans 22, Flamingos 74 Howden Hawks 29, Wasps 33 Tip Top Trees 29

Tigers set to boost youth set-up

Under 18s launched

AXMINSTER Town Football Club are in the process of extending their youth section.

The Tigers had just one established youth side last season but have plans in place to increase this to four.

Club chairman Ray Self alongside youth development officer Micky Walsh will be running an under 18s team that will be playing friendly floodlit matches on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Self said: "Micky has contacts within the local football scene that we hope will allow us to play against the academy teams from the likes of Torquay United and Tiverton Town.

"As we are only playing friendlies under 18 players from any of the local Saturday teams can get involved.

"Anybody interested can call me on 07747 488111 for more details.

In addition ex-reserve team manager Mike Walton will be overseeing the under five, under 12 and under 16 teams.

Walton said: "The under fives will only be training and maybe playing the odd friendly. Training sessions will take place at Sector

Lane on Sundays at 10am.

"With the under 12s we've gained some players from Perry Street who didn't have enough for a team of their own – we hope to enter this team, which will train on Wednesdays at 6.15pm, in the East Devon League.

"Finally the under 16 will also be entered in the East Devon League. These lads will be training on Thursdays at 6.15pm.

"In addition to the under 18s we still need players for each of the three younger groups. Anybody interested in the under fives, 12s or 16s should contact me on 07730 790422."
